Jordan Patel

Lifecycle Marketing Lead

Chicago, Illinois | jordan.patel@example.com | linkedin.com/in/jordan-patel-lifecycle

PROFILE

Lifecycle and demand-generation leader with eight years in software and fintech. Strong in segmentation, nurture design, product adoption, and cross-functional operating rhythms, with less direct ownership of large paid-media budgets.

EXPERIENCE

Lifecycle Marketing Lead

LedgerLoop, Chicago | March 2022 - Present

- Own onboarding, activation, expansion, and re-engagement journeys for a B2B payments platform serving 18,000 business users.
- Rebuilt lifecycle segmentation around company size, product usage, and sales stage, increasing activated accounts by 24% year over year.
- Partner with Product and Customer Success on in-app messages, email experiments, and quarterly customer education programs.
- Built a retention and campaign dashboard in Looker using Salesforce and product-event data; present findings to the growth council each month.

Senior Marketing Automation Specialist

Riverbank Finance, Chicago | July 2019 - February 2022

- Designed Marketo programs for lead nurturing, event follow-up, and sales alerts across commercial banking products.
- Reduced the median lead follow-up time from three days to one business day by redesigning routing rules with Sales Operations.
- Tested subject lines, offers, and send timing across more than 140,000 contacts and documented results for regional marketing teams.

Marketing Associate

NimbleDesk, Chicago | June 2017 - June 2019

- Supported webinars, customer newsletters, and campaign reporting for a small-business software product.
- Maintained contact data quality and assisted with monthly pipeline reconciliation.
