PROFILE

Growth marketing analyst with three years of experience in experiment design, funnel reporting, and paid-channel analysis for a subscription software business. Technically curious and hands-on, with early-career scope and limited ownership of cross-functional programs.

EXPERIENCE

Growth Marketing Analyst

PollenDesk, Atlanta | June 2023 - Present

- Analyze acquisition and activation performance across Google, LinkedIn, partner, and product-led channels for a team collaboration product.
- Built an experiment tracker and weekly dashboard that helped the team run 22 landing-page and onboarding tests in one year.
- Identified a pricing-page drop-off that led to a 14% increase in trial starts after copy and form changes.
- Prepare channel readouts for the Growth Manager and maintain campaign data quality in HubSpot.

Marketing Coordinator

BeaconRoute, Atlanta | July 2021 - May 2023

- Supported webinars, paid social briefs, website updates, and weekly lead reporting for a logistics software company.
- Created spreadsheet models for budget pacing and campaign conversion.
- Coordinated with Sales Development on event follow-up and contact cleanup.
