PROFILE

Content and SEO strategist with five years of experience turning product expertise into organic acquisition and sales enablement. Strong writer and researcher with growing exposure to lifecycle programs and limited paid-media ownership.

EXPERIENCE

Content and SEO Strategist

QuarryNote, Seattle | August 2022 - Present

- Own the organic growth roadmap for a workflow software company, from customer research and topic selection through publication and refresh.
- Grew non-branded organic sessions by 67% in 18 months and increased organic demo requests by 38% after rebuilding high-intent product pages.
- Interview subject-matter experts and customers to produce technical guides, comparison pages, and sales enablement content.
- Partner with the lifecycle manager on a six-email education series for leads who are not yet sales ready.

Content Marketing Specialist

BeaconOps, Seattle | July 2020 - July 2022

- Published a quarterly research report and supporting webinar series that generated 420 net-new contacts in the first year.
- Built a content performance dashboard using Google Analytics 4, Search Console, and CRM campaign data.
- Supported paid social copy and landing-page messaging but did not own media budgets.

Editorial Assistant

Westline Business Journal, Seattle | September 2018 - June 2020

- Reported and edited articles about technology companies, local investment, and small-business operations.
- Managed an editorial calendar and coordinated interviews with founders and operators.
