Hannah Kim

Content Marketing Manager

Austin, Texas | hannah.kim@example.com | linkedin.com/in/hannah-kim-content

PROFILE

Content marketing manager with seven years of experience developing editorial platforms, customer stories, and thought leadership for technology and consumer audiences. Strong writer and editor with campaign experience, though formal brand-positioning ownership is shared with strategy teams.

EXPERIENCE

Content Marketing Manager

Storywell, Austin | November 2021 - Present

- Lead editorial strategy for a customer-experience software company across research reports, customer stories, newsletters, webinars, and executive content.
- Grew newsletter subscribers by 52% and increased content-assisted demo requests by 34% through audience-specific editorial tracks.
- Manage freelance writers, a podcast producer, and a quarterly research agency budget of $180,000.
- Partner with Brand on voice guidelines and with Demand Generation on campaign distribution and measurement.

Senior Content Strategist

Cedar Digital, Austin | August 2018 - October 2021

- Developed content strategies and customer storytelling programs for software, healthcare, and education clients.
- Led interviews with customers and subject-matter experts and turned findings into campaign narratives and creative briefs.
- Presented content performance and learning agendas in quarterly client reviews.

Copywriter

Bluebird Studio, Austin | June 2017 - July 2018

- Wrote website, email, social, and product-launch copy for small business and lifestyle clients.
- Maintained editorial schedules and supported creative reviews.

EDUCATION

BA, English and Rhetoric - University of Texas at Austin, 2017

SKILLS

Editorial strategy, customer storytelling, thought leadership, copywriting, interviews, campaign narratives, email, SEO, agency and freelancer management

CERTIFICATIONS

HubSpot Content Marketing Certification; Content Marketing Institute Strategy Certificate